Kinston Council Accepts $8000 Paving Grant

The Kinston City Council met on Tuesday night, July 19, at city hall, and voted unanimously to accept a resolution accepting a $8000 grant from the State Highway Department to be used for street repair and paving.

The meeting began at 7:30 p.m. with all members present. Present were Mayor Steve Hunko, City Clerk Peggy Cain, and Council members Sara Bowden, Houston Martin, Dewey Adams, Harold Rhodes and Mickey Weeks.

After Councilman Adams led the group in prayer, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The council discussed what work should be done with the $8000 grant, and suggested setting up a priority system. Various projects mentioned included the patching of holes in the downtown area and general paving throughout the city.

The city also received $10,000 to be used to employ a radio dispatcher and policeman, and $500 for recreation equipment.

Councilman Adams said, "When we purchase the equipment, we should keep it in a safe place. When the equipment is used, it should be signed for."

The council agreed to let Coach Eddie Hill and Coach Pete Kelley be in charge of the recreation program for the remainder of the summer, and authorized them to purchase whatever equipment is needed.

Mayor Hunko presented a bill from the Odom Truck Company in the amount of $375 for work done on the city's water tank in 1976. The company claims to have a 10-year contract with the city for maintenance of the tank.

"We can't find a copy of the contract," said Hunko, "and I don't think we should pay the bill until we see the contract!"

The council voted unanimously to withhold payment of the bill until the company sends a copy of the contract to the city.

The council was informed that it had been announced the Kinston Rescue Squad would receive a grant to buy equipment. The amount of the grant was not announced, but it must be matched on a 50-50 basis by the Rescue Squad.

Hunko told the members the time had come to cut grass in the city, and asked that they be responsible for the possible damage to the tractor while it is on the job.

The council voted to pay a man $20 a day to operate the tractor, and agreed to buy a diesel fuel for the tractor. The council also agreed to be responsible for repairing or replacing a tire if it is punctured while cutting the grass.

In other action, the council voted to raise the rental fee of City Hall to $15 for the hall and $20 for use.

Fire At Dorsey Trailers Injures Five Workers

HANK WEEKS, with apron, is shown explaining to Dorsey...

Officials Blame Fumes From Glue But Can't Explain Source Of Spark

A flash fire at the Elba plant of Dorsey Trailers Friday afternoon hospitalized five men with extensive burns. The fire was reported to the Elba Fire Department at 2:33 p.m., however, company employees using emergency fire fighting equipment had the blaze under control when the fire trucks arrived. The fast action was aided by the fact that several employees of the trailer manufacturing firm are also members of the volunteer fire department, and other firemen went directly to the scene from their places of employment.

Those injured were Wiley Williams and John Coleman of Elba, Raymond Chamblee and Charles Smith of Opp, and Jerome Flowers of Brundage. Hank Weeks, Jr., of Opp, the sixth member of the crew working in the area of the flash fire reportedly escaped without injuries.

The five burn victims were taken to the Elba General Hospital by either the Elba Rescue Squad or by the Dorsey emergency vehicle. All five were later transferred to University Hospital in Birmingham by two MAST helicopters from Ft. Rucker.

Reports Wednesday were that all five victims are recovering remarkably well. Both Flowers and Coleman who were confined to intensive care, were expected to come out of that section by today. The other three were reported to be recovering even faster with hopes of being discharged within a few weeks.

Flying the first of two helicopters from Rucker were Captain Randy Sexton and Lt. Paul Gillette along with medic EUGENE HANNIS. The second helicopter was manned by Captain David L. Conner, 1st Lt. John Adams and Sp. 5 Lee Carpenter.

Company officials and fellow employees reported that the men were installing "scuff boards" in the almost-completed trailer when the fire of the flash fire reportedly escaped without injuries.

Sheriff Reports

Some Relief In Jail Population

The Coffee County jail in Elba was overflowing with 41 inmates Tuesday morning, according to Sheriff Neil Graham. There were prisoners sleeping in halls, on floors and everywhere. However, ten of the inmates have been transferred to either other jails or state prisons.

One was wanted in Geneva County also and he, along with two other state prisoners, were transferred to Geneva County. The transfer to Geneva was out of the goodness of their heart, Graham said.

Three of the inmates were charged with escaping from the work release center (already serving state time); one was transferred to the Frank Lee Youth Center, and the work release violators and three others were transferred to Kibby.

The jail has a capacity of thirty-four inmates, and Graham reports that if at all possible, local citizens charged with minor crimes or traffic offenses are being housed in the jail.

Nicholson said it was in a ditch beside the road and was almost covered up from work by a road grader.

Garbage Body Again Dominates Elba Meeting

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night with all present and the highlight of the evening again was a debate about the garbage truck body. This week the potential seller, Frank Moore of Enterprise, was at the meeting and expressed disgust with Mayor Folsom and said he wanted to talk with the council and tell them what had happened. Following this statement, Moore and Folsom got into a heated exchange several times. The discussion began to wind down quickly when Folsom told the council that he belongs to Elba and you are only a salesman and have no authority to decide things for the City of Elba.

The discussion opened with Moore being recognized and in response to being asked to please state his business, Moore said, "I want to see what the council is going to do about the garbage truck."

Folsom then announced that the old truck was fixed and was back at work picking up garbage on the regular route. He noted that the total bill for the repair (including all parts and labor) totaled $325.60. Folsom then compared this several times throughout the matter and helped establish when and what the repairs cost only $325.60.

Moore again said, "The council is who I came to talk to. I didn't come to talk to you anyway."

When Folsom noted that the repairs cost only $325.60, Moore said, "You don't know what you are talking about. You are not a machinist man, nor a solid waste expert."

Councilman Jimmy Wise and Cleo Hawkins made a few comments about the matter and helped establish when and what the repairs cost only $325.60.

The council voted unanimously to place Street Superintendent Gerald Wambles and Assistant Superintendent J. C. Stuckey on straight salary, and stressed that they didn't want to lose any money from the change.

No action was taken on the purchase of two new police cars, even though bids had been sent out and two dealers said it was too late to special order a 1977 police car, and certain changes would have to be made in the specs to order a 1978 model.

Fleetwood Carley was named to handle the work of City Recorder during the time Bill Stokes is unable to resume work. Stokes is in a Birmingham hospital, Carley had agreed to fill the duties for a month or two, but Stokes was unable to work.

A public hearing was advertised and held on rezoning two pieces of property in Elba. The first was to rezoning property on the Troy Highway to allow parking of a mobile home of Mrs. Sue Sozan on land owned by her parents. The action was opposed by Roy English, who joins the property, and the council turned the rezoning down.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Our politicians in Washington heard the cry from the taxpayers when they allowed the new Tullahoma Dam on the Little Tennessee River to be halted because of a little fish being an endangered species. Now this fish is just another stump-puller to the natives of the area, but nevertheless, we stopped a fifty-million dollar project because of them. Now, to show us they have not goofed, the nuts in Washington are going to spend $9 million to move ten thousand of the little fish called the Shale Darter somewhere else. Boy, wouldn't some of these Coffee County snook fishermen like getting paid that much money to catch 10,000 fish of just any size? They wouldn't need an office full of desks and pretty secretaries trying out reports - just a net, bucket of water and directions to the bank with their profits. That figures out a whopping $500 a fish and they don't get as big as a person's hand and ain't special for nothing!

The continuing hassle in Montgomery over the resolution that cut out the committee that got Lt. Governor Jerry Beasley so much publicity last year is causing some folks to become very bitter at their peers. I am sure that there will never be another resolution passed on "repealing of rules" or without a full re-...
 Also, Mr. Holmes will be hard put to get anything passed through the Legislature in the future. I was not surprised that the Attorney General ruled against Beasley in that issue, because the two have been at each other ever since it became apparent they would be opponents in next year's Governor's race. Personally, I feel that a statement as strong as going away with a committee should have been included in the heading of the bill to make it legal and not hidden in the wording. It was cute as a joke, but government can't operate with such actions, and goodness we have enough problems getting our legislature operating as it is.

The looters in New York are being mistreated! That is what someone said earlier this week of the three thousand plus people who were arrested during the blackout in the nation's largest city last week. The idea of having any good feelings for such animal-like actions is a bit more than I can share with anyone. No city, not even New York, can be expected to have country club facilities in their jails for a sudden increase of 3500 in the jails.

The Elba City Council was in a negative mood Tuesday night. After turning down a rezoning for a mobile home because of objections from a neighbor, they refused (by inaction) to approve a rezoning for a shopping center developer even though there were no objections. The mayor and several councilmen kept saying they wanted to see a drawing of what was going to be in the shopping center. Even though they were told (and said they understood) that no commitments could be secured until AFTER the property had been rezoned and knew it was possible, the council still asked that they be presented with a drawing of the proposed shopping center before approving it. I guess the thing to do would be to draw a few squares on a sheet of paper, call one a grocery store, another a restaurant, and the others something else, get the council approval or disapproval and then throw the piece of paper in the garbage, because that is what it would be worth, as far as what would actually be built there if anything ever is built.

One of the surprises in the list of contributors to George Wallace's campaign for Congress is the $1,000 from former Senator Tom Rader. Now Rader is (or was) one of the very liberal folks a few years ago. He openly opposed the Kennedy brothers for national office, even after it became politically unpopular in Alabama to support Robert or Teddy Kennedy. Now we see Rader putting $1,000 in the Wallace coffers. Politics does make strange bedfellows!

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Sir:
 I am an Army officer from Ashford, Alabama, stationed in the Washington, D.C. area. Over a year ago I started compiling a history of the Bransford family of America. My search has led me to Coffee County and I am writing to your paper in hopes that some of your readers may be able to help me. My great grandfather, John Hooton Bransford and his family were living in Coffee County during the 1880 census. More recently, he was living in Centerville, Beat 12. His wife was Mary, a former Crutchfield, who was the widow of a Mr. Bradshaw. I understand that she was a midwife. Daughter Sarah was born in 1868, daughter Mary in 1871, daughter Donna in 1879, step-daughter Evelyn, Bradshaw in 1883, and my grandfather, John Warren in 1876. He spelled his name Bransford in later years, after moving to Houston County.

My great grandfather, J. H. Bransford, enlisted in the Confederate Army from Dale County in 1861 and served for

Protecting Our Environment

The quality of the water in the Hudson River, which runs between New Jersey and New York, is getting so much better through sewage treatment that fish like salmon are being found for the first time in many years.

With a staff of scientists and $250,000 in equipment, the Environmental Quality Lab has been busy in Florida since 1974. It was established by General Development, the conservation-minded community developer, to keep tabs on wildlife and environmental problems like air and water quality, that affect 60,000 Floridians in the Company's seven planned communities.

The largest supply of natural gas, the fuel that aids the least pollution to the air, has been discovered in northern Alaska. It will be supplying millions of cubic feet of the clean-burning fuel by the early 1980s.

HOME BUYER CLINIC

WILLFUL EFFECT

Under our system of law, the will of a previous owner can materially affect real estate ownership for a home buyer. This became clear to a buyer in an eastern state who after purchase was faced with a claim that part of the property was held down electric bills.

The picture here of the man in the tax is none other than Frank Haley. Now, if someone is wondering why they couldn't get any gas one day recently, it was probably because Frank was being chased by an army with this tax, trying to get him ready for the wedding of his son. A quick check this week revealed that Haley had shed the fancy rags and was back pumping gas and aligning front ends of automobiles.

A special form will be included in the August issue of ARMA MAGAZINE, which will be mailed out the latter part of this month (July), which consumers may use to record their daily readings of the meter at their home, and on which they may list their name and address, and the electric cooperative which serves them.

Clearing up this land dispute resulted in substantial legal fees and other costs. These were paid under the buyer's policy of owner's title insurance issued at the time of his real estate purchase. Interpretation of wills is a matter that is not resolved by a court of law.

BIKE SAFETY

BY: Chief M. W. Johnston

LESSON 7

Every operator of any kind of moving vehicle is affected by the weather conditions prevailing. This is true of airplane pilots, in all air traffic, as well as trucks, cars, and all other ground traffic.

Boys and girls riding bicycles must be careful to follow the rules of safe biking at all times, but especially during bad weather. It is, of course, the best policy to stay off your bike during rain storms, snow storms, fog and darkness. For those who find they must ride their bikes in bad weather, to deliver papers, go to school, or other good reasons, we will use this lesson to discuss proper safety precautions.

In bad weather the bicyclist must remember that it is far more difficult to be seen than in bright sunshine. Every one has ridden in an automobile with his parents, when rain or snow has been falling. Remember how the windshield wipers had a difficult time keeping the windshield clean enough to see out? Sometimes, there is a split second, each time the driver cannot see ahead of him!

Do everything possible to make it easier to see you. Wear light colored clothing, a bright raincoat or jacket, and have your headlight on, even though it may not be after dark!

You must be particularly cautious about riding close to the curb, crossing at intersections or darting out of driveways or alleys. Always stop and look both ways before proceeding at such places!

Miss Carter Weds Mr. Stephens In June 4 Wedding

Miss Jackie Carter and Mr. Ricky Stephens were united in holy matrimony Saturday, June 4 at 2 p.m. in a beautiful garden wedding at the bride's home.

Miss Carter is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Carter and the late Mr. Kenneth Carter of Turon.

Mr. Stephens is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Parkin of Troy and Mr. Pete Stephens of Glenwood.

Reverend Ray Stinson performed the ceremony with Miss Totie Henley providing music on the piano. Given in marriage by her grandfather, she was attired in a formal gown, featuring an empire waist. Chantelle enhanced the bodice and flowed to the hem of the gown. A camelot crown of lace held in place her full length tiered veil of silk illusion. She carried a white Bible topped with a big white orchid with streamers of white roses, a touch of blue carnations and touches of greenery.

The garden wedding was beautiful with pines surrounding the matrimonial area. The matron of honor, outlined the pathway to the altar, spreading the cover from the wedding bench. The aisle was outlined with wrought iron stands with blue ribbon streamers attached to each stand. The altar was banked with greenery and blue ribbons and streamers. The kneeling bench also had blue ribbons on it.

Miss Kidd, Mr. Taylor Nuptials Exchanged June 18

Miss Belinda Gail Kidd and William Patrick Taylor were united in marriage on Saturday, June 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mammie Taylor of Enterprise. The bride was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Kidd of Elba. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Taylor of Elba.

The ceremony was performed before an arrangement of white mums and yellow carnations. In front of the arrangements was a single altar. On either side were candelabras containing yellow candles. Arrangements of white mums and yellow carnations accented the candelabras. The arrangements were decorated with peach bows.

A program of wedding music was played by Lucracia Smith, pianist. The traditional wedding marches were used. A solo, "Color My World," was sung by the bride to the groom during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza. The bodice was designed with a high lace collar above a sheer yoke. Lace cuffs enhanced the long sleeves. The skirt was encircled with lace which also accented the softly draped train. The veil extended to fingertip length and was edged with lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies and roses tied with yellow ribbon.

The father of the bride served as best man. The groom was lighted by Mr. Ben Howell, cousin of the bride. Master Brett Howell, cousin of the bride, served as ring-bearer.

Following the ceremony, the reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eul Duncan of Enterprise. The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and white lace. It featured a three-tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom. The cake was covered with tiny peach and yellow roses. A single white column separated each tier of the cake. Mrs. Glen Duncan, Mrs. Eul Duncan, Mrs. Farrell Duncan, Mrs. Ben Howell, and Mrs. Ronnie Dahame, relatives of the bride, served. Miss Betty Johnson registered the guests.

For traveling, the bride chose a peach knit suit with matching scarf. She wore a corsage with matching accessories. The couple is now residing in Elba.

Each little guest was given a party hat to wear upon their arrival. Decorations featuring Walt Disney characters were used and atop the cake, Mickey Mouse greeted 17 little friends as they gathered around the table for Adina to blow out the candles.

Misses Cindy Jacobs and Casey Corley assisted Mrs. Smith in serving cake, punch, cookies, and candy. Adina gave each of her guests party favors as they departed.

Those helping Adina to celebrate were Little Misses Stacy and Stephanie Blawie, Page Holley, Jill Windham, Darnell Boggs, Lee Ann and Melissa Jones, and Sharon Young; Masters Clark Tucker, Clint Martin, Jack Windham, Phil Boggs, Tommy Young, Chris Parrish, Eric Simmons, David Carney, and Dusty Smith, Mrs. Arthur D. The District Softball Tournament begins Saturday in Enterprise, and two Elba teams will be competing.

The People's Bank and Dorsey Trailers will both be trying to place in the "Top 4" in the tournament, and thus earn a spot in the State Tournament to be held later this month in Cullman.

THE OTHER LEAGUE
The results of last week's Independent Softball League games are in the paper this week, and for those of you who don't know much about the League - here is a little information.

The League has 7 members, and is unseasoned. The teams are Brundage Vols, Brundage Kleiner's, Hospital, Pine Level, Westside and Piggy Wiggy.

I'll have to admit the overall strength of the League may not be up to that of the City League, but the Independent teams do play good ball. If you don't think the teams are good, just ask around!

The Diner Bell coasted to the championship in a tournament held at Opp last weekend, but the Brundage Vols have blasted the Florida team twice this year in tournaments at Elba.

Dorsey is tied for the lead in the City League, but lost to Kleiner's in a tournament in Lenoir.

New Brundage is another good team in the City League, but were upset by Pine Level earlier this year in a tournament. I think it would be very interesting if the two leagues would combine and have a double-elimination tournament. This could prove which league has the best team!

COACHES STILL MOVING AROUND
Coach Hinton Johns has resigned as an assistant coach at Americus, Georgia, to accept a similar post at Opp High School.

Coach Johns was here at Elba for three years, and has proven himself to be an excellent coach.

Nicky Mosley has been promoted to the head coaching position at Daleville. Mosley, who has served as an assistant at the school for three years, replaces Benny Sivil.

Howard Holland has been named head football coach at Headland High School.

ELBA TEAMS OUSTED
Elba's Dixie Youth and Babe Ruth All-Star teams failed to advance in District Tournament competition held last weekend.

The Babe Ruth team fell to Geneva 7-4 and Opp 5-0, while defeating Greenville 10-5. I guess they live in south Birmingham!

The Dixie Youth team lost two straight games in the tournament, but played good ball.

All the players and coaches on both teams put in many hours of practice getting ready for the tournaments, and they deserve a "pat on the back" for being fine representatives of the City!

FOOTBALL IN SUMMER
The Alabama High School All-Star football game will be played on Friday, July 29, at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa, and several area players will be on the South team.

The lineup includes: Leo Campbell, quarterback, Georgia; Tony Hardwick, running back, Cottonwood; Bobby Johnson, running back, Andalusia; Tim Bryan, center, Brantley; and Marvin Williams, middle guard of Evergreen.

Also playing on the South team are Major Ogilvie and Richard Burg, both from Mt. Brook's unbeaten state championship team of 1976. I guess they live in south Birmingham!

(By the way, the South roster includes 13 players who have signed scholarships with S.E.C. schools.)

THE ALABAMA OPEN
The Alabama Open Golf Tournament is set for August 19-21 at the Pine Tree Country Club in Birmingham.

All golfers with a 10 or less handicap are eligible to play. Qualifying for this area takes place August 1 at Rolling Hills in Montgomery, but the deadline for entering is July 25.

Entry forms are available at your local pro shop.

COOK PLACES THIRD
Cook Chevrolet was the only local team to bring back a trophy from the tournament held in Opp last weekend.

Cook placed 3rd by defeating Auto Sav and J. M. Jackson before losing two straight games.

Dorsey won one game in the tournament, while Wise's lost two close games.

FUTURE MASTERS UNDERWAY IN DOTHAN
The Future Masters Golf Tournament is underway in Dothan this week with a total of 604 junior golfers entered.

The tournament runs through Saturday, and is worth watching.

IN CLOSING
The Men's Softball season ends Friday night, and the Women's season only has one more week. If you haven't seen a game, now is the time!

Till then . . .

Men's Softball League Enters Final

Week Of Action

The Men's Softball League has only two regular season games left, and it appears that the battle for the League championship has turned into a 2-team race.

The People's Bank, winner of the first session, owns a 6-2 record after Friday night's controversial loss to Cook, and is tied for the top spot with Dorsey Trailers.

Friday's result: Dorsey 3 - Wise's 2.

Dorsey Trailers scored two runs in the sixth inning to edge Wise's 3-2 in Friday's opener.

Both teams tallied once in the opening inning, but neither could manage to score again until Wise's went ahead 2-1 in the top of the sixth.

Dorsey used three hits to plate two runs in their half of the inning and held on for the win.

Glen Thompson collected 3 hits to lead Dorsey, while teammates Terry Henderson and Jimmie Bedsole chipped in with two hits apiece.

Billy Bombo scored both of Wise's runs.

Cook 5 - (awarded win) - People's Bank 17

Cook Chevrolet was awarded a win over the People's Bank when the umpire declared a forfeit.

The exact cause of the forfeit is not known, but sources report the cause as (1) a player who had been ejected returning to the field, or (2) an unsportsmanlike conduct.

Cook was led by Frankie Christian and Roy Grimes with two hits each.

David Rhoden collected 3 hits to lead the Bank, while Skip Rainey, Wayne Flowers, Tommy Skinner, Jeff Wain and Kenneth Pope all added 2 hits.

Young Farmer's Night Held Recently

By Tom Casadey, County Extension Chairman

TOUR
On a recent 3500 mile tour in the East, I found that drought conditions were worse in south Alabama, south Georgia than in any other places. The corn in North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, New York and other areas is from knee high up to waist high. Only a small amount of corn in those areas is tassel.

The corn in those other states where they have not suffered drought is very green, growing rapidly and looks good. On my trip back down through Kentucky, Tennessee and North Alabama, I did not notice any really droughty corn until I got to Montgomery and Pike counties. The further south I drove, the worse the corn looked. The counties in south Alabama and south Georgia have really suffered a disaster.

INSPECTION
J. W. Smith, peanut producer in Kinston, believes in keeping up with his peanuts. He told me recently that he inspects every peanut field he has every day. He looks for diseases and worms. If he finds something abnormal, he takes action just as quickly as possible.

Smith said, "You can't tell about your peanuts by just driving along in your pickup truck. You have to get out in the field, get down on your knees and look closely at the plant."

Smith, along with several other Kinston area farmers, is doing an excellent job in peanut production. I just hope they can get enough rain to mature their peanuts. Rain there has been very spotted, also.

SPOTTY
Unless we have a dramatic change in the weather pattern in a few days, I expect yields to vary—200 pounds peanuts per acre up to over 3000 pounds per acre. The yield is going to depend almost entirely on the rainfall received so far and that which we receive between now and harvest time. Some fortunate farmers will make excellent yields, but there will be very few of these.

Many times we have dry conditions like we have had this year every year. For example, last year we had some dry spots in the county, and yields were very low. This year unless something happens in the next week, we will have a lot of low yields county wide.

GRAZING
Coffee County beef cattle producers should be making plans now for grazing to get cows through the winter. Rye planted following peanuts and corn harvest could provide a lot of extra grazing to get cattle through the winter. In fact, we have very little hay saved. Winter grazing is going to be more important this year than any previous year. I hope good supplies of seed will be available at reasonable prices.

Perhaps this will be the last year of low prices for beef cattle. Everyone is hoping that next year will see considerable improvement. Good grazing can help carry cattle through the winter and keep most of the Coffee County herds intact.

NEW AGENT
Arthur Mann, a recent graduate of Auburn University and a native of Clay County, has joined our staff. He will be working primarily in the 4-H Club program.

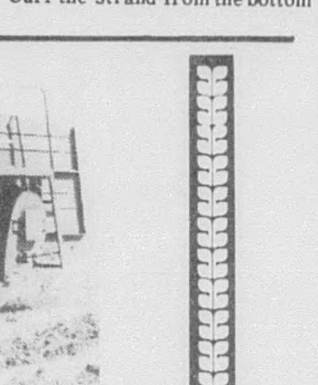

Mr. Mann was an outstanding student at Auburn majoring in agricultural science with a minor in business administration. He is a member of the Alabama Extension Council Horticulture Committee.

Mann is now the former County Extension Agent in Coffee County. He is making their home in Enterprise. He will be working primarily with beef and hog producers. Of course, all of us will be helping Mann carry on the excellent 4-H Club program which is underway. We welcome the Manns to Coffee County and wish them well.

Every year, candy makers in the United States use 185 million pounds of sugar. In 1976, 325 million pounds of sugar and chocolate products were sold. That's a lot of sugar.

Too much candy may not make a good diet—but neither does too much milk, cheese, meat, vegetables or fruit. Taken in moderation, candy is a good source of energy and a good source of vitamins and minerals.

The first chocolate factory opened in America in 1765. Today the average American eats six ounces of chocolate every week—about eleven and a quarter pounds a year.

IN COMPETING FOR YOUR EQUIPMENT DOLLAR

everyone who makes farm machinery will tell you they make the best. That's natural, we guess, but how do you know who to believe?

Lilliston's no exception in claiming superiority. There's a big difference, though. With the Lilliston 6000 Hi-Cap Peanut Combine, it's the users who say it's the best. As far as competition goes, they'll tell you there isn't any.

In the Hi-Cap, Lilliston wraps up tremendous capacity, solid dependability, custom performance and pure quality into a harvester beyond comparison. The Lilliston 6000 will out-run, out-harvest and outlast them all.

You can count on it to make the most of your crop. Never was that more important than it is to you today.

THE LILLISTON 6000 HI-CAP PEANUT COMBINE

There are other combines that make the harvest, but none brings it in like this.

VERY IMPORTANT TO YOU: TOO MANY LILLISTON HARVESTERS ARE BEING TRADED IN ALWAYS.

COFFEE CONSERVATION

SOIL CONSERVATION PRACTICES ALSO WATER CONSERVATION PRACTICES

In these days of drought, we all are interested in getting the most out of the small showers we receive. For those farmers who followed good soil conservation practices, the moisture that fell was held on the land and uprooted, then those who planted and down the hill, the water flows straight to the bottom and the plants on top will first and last.

Follow good conservation practices and get better efficiency out of your irrigation system. If you need information on conservation practices or on irrigation, contact your local Soil and Water Conservation District or the Soil Conservation Service in New Brockton.

Let's to a meeting on the state of land conservation being granted to the undersigned.

HEAD SCARVES
Lots of women love the new head scarf looks but don't know how to tie them. They don't realize that the most complicated style is simple to master if you have the right size scarf and follow a few simple instructions.

For the "flapper" look, tie an extra long rectangular scarf around your head. Then twist or braid both loose ends to make a tight, single strand. Curl the strand from the bottom up and pin it to hold it in place. The knot can be worn on the back or the front.

For the "twist" you'll need two square scarves. Fold one scarf into a triangle. Place it on your head with the point in back. Then tie the scarf ends in a square knot behind your head, and knot the triangle under the knot. Fold the other scarf into a triangle. Twist the scarf at either end until it is in a tight coil. Then trap it around your head and tie it in the center at back of your head. Use contrasting colors for this style.

ROSES
Roses grow best where they have full sunshine all day. They will grow satisfactorily, however, if they have at least 6 hours of sun a day.

Roses need large amounts of water. Even where rainfall is plentiful, occasional watering is beneficial. Soak the soil thoroughly to a depth of 8-10 inches.

Cultivate roses carefully; their roots may grow close to the surface and may be injured by deep cultivation. Prune roses annually to improve their appearance, to remove dead wood, and to control the quantity and quality of flowers produced by the plants.

Keep your rose garden cleaned of weeds, fallen rose leaves, and diseased or insect-infested canes. Spray or dust regularly to prevent insect or disease damage.

COLOR
Color is one of the least expensive ways to beautify your home. Be careful, however, about using too many colors. For a unified look, use one predominant color throughout. The key color should be used in some way in all rooms.

If you must have more variety, use a change of color in the bedrooms; they are usually separated from the other rooms and therefore are less noticeable.

BAKING TIPS
Unless a recipe specifies differently, baking ingredients should be at room temperature. Why? Because they work better in the mixture at room temperature than if they are too warm or too cool.

Because dark or hot pans absorb heat, foods bake faster and crusts bake browner in such pans than in shiny pans that reflect heat.

A properly adjusted oven is a "must" for successful baking. Check the temperature in your oven from time to time with an accurate oven thermometer.

Should fruit pies be refrigerated? Yes. They can be reheated in a moderate oven, to freshen them.

Elba Mayor Tangles With Police

Mayor Robert Folsom suspended Policeman Pete Daugherty without pay Tuesday afternoon and reinstated him minutes later. The reason stated on typed letter of suspension was "disrespect to the Mayor of Elba at a meeting relative to a complaint by Mr. Folsom for the letter up before placing it in Daugherty's file and told him to go back to work."

The story of what happened has been pieced together as follows, quoting those involved in various parts of the incident. Daugherty and his wife were visiting in the home of the caretaker of Camp Humming Hills, the girl scout camp north of Elba. (We know they visit back and forth as we have seen the two couples in various places). A car drove into the scout camp PAST posted signs. The caretaker, Mr. Ray Barnett, yelled at the car to stop and reportedly it did for a few seconds. However, the car (with no tag and several people in it) went on into the scout reservation and Barnett jumped into his truck and chased the car. Daugherty was asked to join him and did. When they cut across an open field and stopped the car, Barnett got out with his pistol drawn and said he didn't know what to expect. Daugherty (who was in civilian clothes) said he picked his pistol up off the seat from where they had been shooting snakes and stuck it in his belt. When Barnett saw he had stopped two teenage couples, he also put his gun away and proceeded to talk with the driver. After checking the youth's license and asking him why he didn't stop the car, he was instructed to leave.

The teenage boy in the back seat pointed to Daugherty and said he knew him and wasn't

General Telephone To Mail Refund Checks In Mid August

General Telephone Company announced recently that rate refund checks are expected to be mailed to its customers in mid-August.

The payment of $2.1 million plus interest was ordered by the Public Service Commission but has been held up pending a circuit court ruling on whether or not intervening attorneys' fees should be paid out of the refund money.

According to General's Vice President and General Manager Bill Entz, the Company opposed the payment of these fees, but the court overruled the firm's objections and has ordered that $75,000 should be paid to the attorneys from the refund money. As a result of the ruling, Entz said the Company has begun the refund process again and customers should be receiving checks in mid-August.

The customer refunds will

HEARING AID BUY MUST GET EXAMS

Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulations requiring hearing aid purchasers to have a medical evaluation become effective August 15, and the Alabama Board of Hearing Aid Dealers reviewed the regulations at a recent meeting in Montgomery.

The board was created by the 1971 Legislature to regulate and license hearing aid dealers in Alabama.

Board Chairman K. Louis Azar of Huntsville explained that a prospective hearing aid purchaser will have to get a statement from a physician, preferably an ear specialist, indicating the person is a candidate for a hearing aid. If the prospective buyer of the hearing aid is 18 or older, the medical requirement may be waived, Azar continued, but the hearing aid dealer must not encourage the client to sign a waiver.

Individuals under 18 must have a medical evaluation. Hearing aid dispensers will have to advise prospective purchasers to consult a physician, preferably an ear specialist, if any of eight readily identifiable conditions exist, Azar declared.

Azar emphasized that physicians are not required to prescribe or certify that a patient may be helped by use of a hearing aid, but will have to furnish a written statement saying the patient's hearing loss has been medically evaluated and the patient may be considered a candidate for a hearing aid. The medical evaluation is intended to prevent the use of a hearing aid being substituted for primary medical or surgical treatment.

Ageless Tax Assessor Fred Donaldson Honored On Birthday Thursday

Surrounded by ladies of the Tax Assessor's office, Mr. Fred Donaldson has a birthday luncheon. Shown with his birthday lunch. Shown are Sybil Nail, Edna English, Gloria Barlow, Gwen Reeves, Pat Sims, and Melinda Boswell. Mrs. Nail made the birthday cake.

Mr. Fred Donaldson, Tax Assessor of Coffee County, had a birthday this month. That's all he'll say - that "he had a birthday, no further information is forthcoming from him as to WHICH birthday it was."

Even so, his fellow employees in the Tax Assessor's office honored him with a birthday luncheon and a gift recently.

Donaldson has been the Tax Assessor for 16 years, before that he was self-employed. He is a life-long resident of Coffee County.

As with the other county office-holders, he divides his time between Elba and Enterprise: Tuesday and Thursday in Elba; and Monday, Wednesday and Friday in Enterprise.

Mr. Fred lives in Enterprise; he is married to the former Annie Mae English, and they are the parents of two children - a son, Fred D. Donaldson, and a daughter, Mrs. Marianne Ellis. Both live in Enterprise.

Red Cross Given Cash

Mr. M. E. Bozeman is pictured above presenting a check for $50 from the International Paper Company to Elba Police Chief M. W. Johnston. Johnston is accepting the check in behalf of the Coffee County Red Cross. West Chapter.
